

CA 04-283 E

To the Clerk of Court:

8/9/05, At my staffing today for an outside ~~custody~~ custody level. My counselor informed me that the reason I received a parole refusal, is because the PBPP is still claiming that I either committed a ~~crime~~ crime or did something to my former girl friend. They have a police report that their using against me. And the PBPP could have contacted their agent at the court house for the deposition, that clearly ~~states~~ states, no crime was committed. Petitioner is referring to the open case that was disposed of Feb. 2004. Now petitioner feels he's being persecuted by the PBPP, and no one is willing to stop them from doing unlawful acts against ~~someone like~~ me. Unless the PBPP is trying to force the petitioner to admit to this ~~now~~ now non existent crime, that he "did not" commit. Please attach this letter and its contents as ~~a claim~~ evidence to the petitioner's petition.

Respectfully,

Brian Cohen
